CONSENT AND INFORMATION FORM FOR COUNSELING SERVICES

We are very pleased and honored that you have chosen Family Matters Counseling Center, LLC. Please take the time to carefully read the following information regarding some important aspects of the counseling process. If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to discuss them with us.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidentiality refers to the process whereby the information that is shared by you with your counselor is kept private. In fact, even your identity as a client will remain confidential unless you yourself choose to disclose this information to someone else. Therefore, information regarding your counseling will not be released without your written authorization. However, please understand that in certain specific instances, there are limits to this confidentiality agreement. (1) In cases where a counselor has reason to believe that a person may be in imminent danger of harming him/herself or others, the counselor may notify the proper authorities. (2) The State of Texas mandates that any person who knows or suspects that a child, an elderly person, or a disabled person is in danger of being physically, emotionally, or sexually abused must report such abuse or suspected abuse to the proper authorities. Counselors are also required to report suspected or actual sexual exploitation of counseling clients by mental health professionals. (3) In Texas, confidentiality does not extend to criminal proceedings or to legitimate subpoenas from a judge in civil proceedings. If a court subpoenas counseling records, the therapist is required to provide the requested information.

BENEFITS/OUTCOMES

Counseling will seek to meet goals established by the individual. A major benefit that may be gained from participating in counseling includes a reduction in distress and a better ability to handle or cope with conflict, and gain confidence and assurance. Other benefits relate to the probable outcomes resulting from continued progress and effort put into the counseling process by the individual. I will do my best to assess progress on a regular basis and solicit your feedback regarding the counseling process to help provide you with the needed help you are seeking.

REALISTIC EXPECTATIONS

Work outside of the counseling sessions is a necessary element for success; therefore, we may ask you to perform some 'homework' related to your goals and our session content. We promise to work as efficiently as possible; at the same time, counseling may move more slowly than you anticipated. We will review your goals with you periodically, and we ask that you request a conversation about the status of our counseling whenever you have questions about progress.

RESPONSIBILITY REGARDING APPOINTMENTS AND CANCELLATIONS

You are responsible for meeting each appointment you agree upon. However, we understand that in certain cases, unexpected things can arise which prevent individuals from being able to keep a scheduled appointment. Therefore, we adhere to the following policy. If we are prevented from keeping an appointment (e.g. due to sickness, an emergency, called out of town, etc.), we will notify you as soon as possible. Similarly, if you are prevented from keeping a scheduled appointment, we simply ask that you notify us by phone (817-361-4545) or email (familymatters@familymatterscounselingcenter.com) 24 HOURS in advance so that another client may have the opportunity to utilize that time slot. If we do not receive such advance notice, you will be responsible for paying the full fee for the session you missed.

PHONE CONTACTS AND EMERGENCIES

Our phone is answered by voice mail 24 hours a day. Due to our work schedule, it may take several hours before we are able to return your call, with the exception of weekends and holidays. The phone number provided is not a crisis-hotline. For emergencies, please call 911.

If such action is necessary, its costs will be included in the claim

INSURANCE

Family Matters is in-network with Blue Cross Blue Shield of Texas, Cigna/Evernorth, Optum, United Healthcare, Humana, First Care (Baylor Scoot & White), and Magellan. Clients with other insurance providers are welcome to use their out-of-network benefits. Benefits will need to be verified prior to initial appointment.

COURT APPEARANCES

Because the client-counselor relationship is built on the foundation of trust, and that trust being confidentiality, it's often damaging to the therapeutic relationship for the counselor to be asked to present records to the court, testify whether factual or in an expert nature, in court or deposition. Therefore, we ask that you only request a court appearance in extreme cases. In the event that it's necessary for a therapist to testify before any court, arbitrator, or other hearing officer at a deposition, whether the testimony is factual or expert, or to present any or all records pertaining to the counseling relationship to a court official, the client agrees to pay for services, including travel, preparation, and necessary expenditures (copies, parking, meals, and the like) at the rate of $250/hour, rounded to the nearest half hour, with a minimum commitment of eight hours, for a total minimum charge of two thousand dollars (8 hours x $250 = $2,000). The client further agrees to pay the $2,000 two weeks prior to the appearance, presentation of records, or testimony requested.
